communicated to the Director. Sharing your concerns with other parents or dancers is ineffective in finding a solution and may result in immediate dismissal from the company.

- B. Being a Micro Mini parent comes with the expectation that you will be on top of checking your emails. Please make sure to create a new email address if you would like to stay organized and keep your “dance” emails in one place.
- C. General communication for the day of competition will be done through Whatsapp. We will also share the videos for the dancers to go home and practice with. Please download this app to your phone if you don’t already have it.
- D. Scheduling for the entire season will be done via Google Calendar. You will be able to access this from your phone via the app or your phone’s calendar. It is expected that Micro Mini parents consistently check the Google calendar for rehearsal schedules.

XXII. COMMITMENT LEVEL

- B. Practicing at home is an essential part of being a member of Micro Mini Company. Dancers are expected to be self-motivated to work outside of the classroom on mastering competition routines, and improving on flexibility and overall technique. Consistency is key to accomplishing goals and gaining confidence as a competitor.

XXIII. FULL-TIME COMPANY

- A. Micro Mini Company is its own entity at Studio 61 Dance Company.

XXIV. GENERAL STUDIO GUIDELINES

- A. A considerable part of the role of our parents is rooted in trust. We ask for your trust in the decisions made that affect every dancer in the Micro Mini Company and all of the dancers that attend Studio 61. We also ask that you trust that your dancer can be responsible for themselves. Allow them the opportunities to learn, fail, and conquer!
- B. Our studio culture is based on showing kindness to those around us. Whether we are in the studio or out, it is understood that the Micro Mini Company dancers are showing love and compassion to all that come in contact with them. They are ambassadors of the studio at all times! This means instilling this culture wherever you go.
- C. Parents are not permitted to stay in the lobby after the first 5 minutes of class. Parents will be allowed to enter the lobby during the last 5 minutes of the last class for their child.
- D. Class and convention etiquette

MICRO MINI COMPANY

- E. Micro Mini Company dancers are generally at the studio for longer periods. We ask that what you bring, you take home, and if you make a mess, you clean it up.
- F. Micro Mini Dancers must follow dress code for each class. Please reference your studio handbook for more details regarding the required dress code for each class.
